Bridgepoint Adds Advisor with over 30 Years of Power Development Experience

TORONTO, November 5, 2009– Mr. Frank Carnevale, CEO of Bridgepoint Group Ltd., is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Bill Leedy as Senior Advisor.

Mr. Leedy has enjoyed a successful career as a senior executive, corporate officer and team leader with more than 30 years of experience in business and project development in the energy and the heating and air conditioning industries.

Most recently Mr. Leedy served as Vice President and Executive Director for non-nuclear generation plant development for Constellation Energy, a Baltimore, MD based Fortune 500 Company. He played a leading role in the development and acquisition of Constellation's substantial portfolio of renewable projects which include solar, geothermal, wind and hydro technologies. Mr. Leedy also served as Vice President Business Development for Constellation Operating Services, a Constellation subsidiary and leading supplier of third party power plant operation and maintenance services.

"I've known Bill Leedy for years, and he has always demonstrated the utmost respect for stakeholders involved in his power projects, and his overall experience and knowledge is a tremendous advantage for Bridgepoint and our clients," commented Mr. Carnevale.
